

This proposed project represents (is) of significant value to to the average citizen of this country as well as the many people all over the country that are providing and maintaining the teletype equipment. The spectrum required to support this non-commercial proposal is very small and insignificant when compared to the many other users of the HF spectrum.

I support it and respectfully recommend that the FCC do as well.

v/r

Howard Weeks